DOCKS STACKED WITH CARGOES FOR COAST

No better argument for keeping the Pacific Mail fleet in commission, in the opinion of local shipping men, is required than a glance at the immense piles of Oriental cargo landed at Pier 7 last night and today from the big steamer Mongolia.

More than 3100 tons of merchandise, food stuffs and sundries from the Philippines, China and Japan were brought to the islands in the Pacific Mail liner. Gangs of stevedores began to transfer the freight from ship to wharf at 5 o'clock last evening. They worked like Trojans throughout the night, taking an hour for breakfast early this morning. At 7 o'clock work was resumed. At noon today it was expected that the cargo would have been removed, to permit the Mongolia to steam to San Francisco at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Leaving behind thousands of tons of Oriental products, the Mongolia steamed from Yokohama with freight that filled the vessel to the hatch covers.

"There was enough cargo at Oriental ports for San Francisco to fill an other ship the size of the Mongolia," said an officer today.

The Pacific Mail liner landed 16 cabin, 9 second class and 37 Asiatic steerage passengers. It brought no Filipinos.

To San Francisco the vessel will carry 225 cabin, 135 second class and 502 Asiatics. More than 550 Chinese are returning to the Pacific coast after having spent some time in their native land.

Federal quarantine officers examined 1024 passengers in the several classes.

At Honolulu 60 passengers join the Mongolia. The vessel will be given a mail to the mainland.

So tremendous is the traffic of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company at present that the general opinion is that the directors will decide to continue under the American flag for a time in spite of the seamen's bill which goes into effect in November.

In a letter to Acting Secretary A. P. Taylor of the Promotion Committee, H. P. Wood writes that the San Francisco officials of the Pacific Mail feel certain of continuing for a year at least. No word has been received from the meeting of the directors now being held in New York.

Kauai Sugar Report.
Sugar awaiting shipment on Kauai included the following lots, according to latest report brought to Honolulu by the Pioneer of the steamer W. G. Hall: Lihue 15,000; Grove Farm, 10,000; Kilauea 6000; Kealia 40,000; K. P. 29,091; McB. 43,087; H. S. 53,698; K. K. B. 13,150; K. A. 3600 sacks.
